

One New Man Study – Chart One

The following is a summary of what Constantine declared as law at the Council at Nicea in 320 A.D.

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The rejection of the literal meaning of Scripture in its content
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The subjugation of Scripture to the authority of a Church hierarchy
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The determination that Church doctrine and practice would be in opposition to the Jews
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The establishment of compulsory conformity in practice
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The acceptance of the State and the sword as the means of maintaining purity in the Church. (The cross was transformed from a means of victory over sin for the individual to a means of victory over sinners for society)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The acceptance of the sword of the State - instead of the Sword of the Spirit, the blood of the Lamb and the blood of the believers - as the means of triumph in the world
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The acceptance of State support of the Church in exchange for the Church support of the State. (The church surrendered its own prophetic message toward the State)