

MORE TO THIS LIFE

---

Steven Curtis Chapman

Today I watched in silence as people passed me by
And I strained to see if there was something hidden in their eyes
But they all looked back to me as if to say, "Life just goes on."

The old familiar story told in different ways
Make the most of your own journey from the cradle to the grave Dream your dreams tomorrow because today, "Life must go on."

But there's more to this life than living and dying
More than just trying to make it through the day
More to this life, more than these eyes alone can see
yes, there's more than this life alone can be.

Tonight he lies in silence, staring into space
And he looks for ways to make tomorrow better than today
But, in the morning light it looks the same, "Life just goes on."

He takes care of his family, he takes care of his work
And every Sunday morning he takes his place at the church
But, still inside he feels the need to search, "Life must go on."

But there's more to this life than living and dying
More than just trying to make it through the day
More to this life, more than these eyes alone can see
yes, there's more than this life alone can be.

So where do we start to find every part of what makes this life complete?
If we turn our eyes to Jesus we'll find Life's true beginning is there on the cross where He died... he died...
to bring us More to this life...
