

SOMETIMES LOVE

1995 Clumsy Fly Music, Chris Rice

Em D/E E D/E

Em

Is our world spinning backwards?

B7

What has brought about this change?

C

G

Can't you see that people aren't the same?

Em

B7

I wish I were dreamin' and could wake up from my sleep

C

G

and find us all the way we used to be.

F2

C

'Cause the love that used to be is dyin'

F2

C

Is anybody even trying?

F2

C

And I don't know how, I don't know why

Dsus

D

But somethin' in my soul is crying, listen;

G

D/G

C2

Sometimes love has to drive a nail into its own hand

G

D/G

C2

Sometimes love has to drive a nail into its own hand

Em E2 (no 3)

into its own hand

Em

B7

One pair of hands broke some bread and washed some feet,

C

G

opened eyes and soothed an angry sea.

Em

B7

Belong to a Man who could see our deepest need

C

G

and showed us love the way it has to be.

F2 C
'Cause He knew the price that love requires
F2 C
and he laid down his own desires.

F2 C/E
He stretched out His hands to save His friends and Dsus D Dsus
said no other love is higher, so listen to me now...

G D/G C2
Sometimes love has to drive a nail into its own hand
into its own hand

G D C2
Sometimes love has to drive a nail into its own hand
into its own hand

Bridge: G D C G D C

G D C2
Love can change us, love can make a way.

G D C2
Only love can change us, love can make a way

G D C2
Only Jesus' love can change us, love can make a way

G D C2
Love can change us, love can make a way.

3 times:

Keep singing "Sometimes love..."
while singing "Love can change us, love can make a way..."

Em B7
I wish I were dreamin' and could wake up from my sleep
C G
and find us all the way we used to be.
