

You Alone (Luke 7:37-50; Luke 8:43-48; John 4:10; John 8:10-11)

by Anne MacCallum & Gary Davis

C Dm
I give you tears for your feet, and I will wash them with my hair

Dm G
Continue my kiss, may my perfume fill the air

C Dm
For my sins have been forgiven, and with much gratitude

Dm G C
Jesus I love You.

C Dm C
My faith is in You alone, This image of my frailty
Dm G C Dm
Is one that we both know. Your grace has brought life to my soul,

G C
My faith is in You alone.

C Dm
I give You water to drink, touch the hem of your robe

G
Listen at Your feet, I will go and sin no more

C Dm
For those sins have been forgiven, and with much gratitude

Dm G C
Jesus, I love You.

C Dm
I am Martha, I am Mary, I am the woman at the well

G
I was caught in my sins with needs, that only God could fill
C Dm G Am (C - 2nd)
And Your love overflows in my soul, my faith is in You alone. (.. alone)
